

Completing Adobe Sign Form.

You must acknowledge the disclosures before completing your form

The screenshot shows the top of the Adobe Sign interface. On the left is the Prospect Bank logo with the tagline 'The Opportunity Bank'. To its right, it says 'Powered by Adobe Acrobat Sign'. A help icon (?) is in the top right. Below the header, the title 'Bank Shirts Order Form' is centered, followed by the instruction 'Please review and complete this agreement.' At the bottom, there is a dark blue bar containing two checkboxes: 'I have read and agree to the Adobe Terms of Use. See our Privacy Policy for details on our privacy practices.' and 'I agree to the Consumer Disclosure.' Both are checked. An 'Accept' button is on the right.

Use the Start and Next buttons to navigate the document to complete fields

This screenshot shows the main form navigation screen. At the top, it has the same Prospect Bank and Adobe Acrobat Sign headers. Below the header is a grey bar with 'Options' on the left, 'Please sign: Bank Shirts Or...' in the center, and 'Next Required 6' on the right. The main area is titled 'BANK SHIRTS ORDER FORM'. On the left, a vertical grey bar contains a yellow 'Next' button. To the right of this bar are three yellow input fields, each with a red asterisk. The first field is labeled 'Order Date' and has a 'Order Date' tooltip above it. The second field is labeled 'Employee Name'. The third field is labeled 'Branch'. At the bottom, there is a dark grey bar with navigation icons: up, down, page number '4 / 4', zoom in, zoom out, and a close 'X' icon.
